

South Atlanta Neighborhood: 531 Houses and 2 Apartment Buildings
South Atlanta is located in NPU-Y and Council District 1.

Turner Field home of the Atlanta Braves Baseball Team is located just a mile and half north of South Atlanta at 755 Hank Aaron Drive.

The Marketplace originally stood as a movie theater and community center. Today it is home to a local marketplace, coffee shop, and shared workspace.

The New Schools at Carver - the local high school - sits on the former site of Clark University & Gammon Theological Seminary. These two historic African American Institutes founded South Atlanta in the late 1880's. The streets are named after the professors & presidents of Clark College & Gammon Theological Seminary.

Bethlehem Senior Center engages seniors who have few resources with services and experiences that improve their quality of life.

The Ron Clark Academy is a private middle school with sliding-scale tuition. The school environment inspires academic excellence, leadership, collaboration, and a world class education for its students.

Price Middle School

Columbia Blackshear Senior Residences offers an elegant but affordable lifestyle for active men and women 62 years or older.

Post Office
Atlanta Fire Station

Aaron's Ampitheatre at Lakewood is approximate a mile south of the neighborhood.

